Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, For many educated people, newspapers are considered our most credible and complete compilations of daily news and information; and,

WHEREAS, By reading a newspaper, curious students keep in touch with a world that will one day belong to them; they learn to understand and cope with the realities of day to day life on this troubled planet; and,

WHEREAS, More directly, newspapers belong in the classroom, for not only do they provide excellent opportunities for young people to exercise and polish their rudiments of reading, but they also offer timely lessons in government, nutrition, sociology, meteorology, the fine arts, world politics, and more; and,

WHEREAS, The American Newspaper Publishers Association and the International Reading Association have designated February 21-27 as Newspaper in Education Week; and,

WHEREAS, The goal of this special week is to develop future generations of informed and intelligent newspaper readers and to promote appreciation for the newspaper's role in a democratic society; and,

WHEREAS, Newspapers offer students of all ages an inexpensive access to the world. These readily available diurnal diaries provide a global adventure which impacts the conscientious reader with a sense of identity and perspective:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Febru[illegible]y 21-27, 1983, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
